

Canadian Association
for Graduate Studies

Association canadienne
pour les études supérieures

Full-time Master's enrolments in Canada, 1992-2014

INTERNATIONAL STUDENT ENROLLMENT

2017 STATISTICAL SNAP SHOTS on INTER- NATIONAL STUDENTS

[http://www.cags.ca/
statistical_reports.php](http://www.cags.ca/statistical_reports.php)

In the 2014-2015 academic year:

There were 91,986 full-time and 32,661 part-time Master's enrolments in universities in Canada. International students made up more than a quarter, or 26%, of full-time Master's enrolment.

There were 49,131 full-time and 2,679 part-time doctoral enrolments. International students accounted for a third (32%) of full-time doctoral enrolment.

Since 2009, annual increase in full-time international master's enrolments has been 10% or more. Enrolment increase by Canadian citizens and permanent residents has been less than 5% annually.

Since the year 2000 (with the exception of 2006), full-time doctoral enrolments by international students has increased. It declined among Canadian citizens and permanent residents from 2013-2015.

Full-time Doctoral enrolments in Canada, 1992-2014

