As of 2014-15, almost two thirds (65%) of full-time international Master's enrolments and about half (52%) of full-time international doctoral enrolments were from Asia.

International students represented the highest percentage of all full-time graduate enrolments in Newfoundland and Labrador (43% of Master's, and 52% of doctoral enrolments).

More full-time enrolments at the Master's level are from France than from the United States.

Seventeen per cent of full-time doctoral enrolments in 2014-2015 were from China; 14% from Iran; and 6% from India.

Almost a third (30%) of Master's enrolments were from China; India (6%) and France (8%).
